

The Kate Crash Experience Lives HERE.

I think, if I could just hang on for one more day I'll figure it out
I'm so close and far from knowing what it's all about
I think "great this is the right way" then "wait is this what I really want?"
Am I selling out or just moving up? Am I losing my heart/head or which ways up?

I pull the covers over my head sometimes I just wanna give up
It's dark and warm under here but I feel like throwing up
From my claws marks skinny lies warred out whored out sexuality is self esteem Do I need another diet, pill, man, and/or more money?

The phone rings there's a million things I'm supposed to be
But which one is me?
I turn myself into a sex symbol because I don't know who else to be
I only wanted fame and beauty because I never knew what else to want
And I'm realizing now that's not what life's about

They clap and snap I give them what I thought they wanted me to be
I bow She has the body I want Let me know what I think My words die on the butchers table I lay down on for a little love and security
Don't worry honey it's nothing a little lipstick and lie can't cover Hey look ma I'm tv

I only wanted fame and beauty because I never knew what else to want
Be careful not to reveal too much about myself or they'll know I'm a fraud
Living, a process of unlearning how you thought you were supposed to live
We're Living beyond the edge in the age beyond reason consume consume that's it?

I am my wife I abuse
I am the oppressor and truth
I am the monkey and the shoes

Taste Kate Butcher Babe
