Had a birthday and a realization. I've been taking myself WAAAAAY too seriously lately. What's up with that? With all the grim realities of Ron Paul, Iraq and the crappy movies about them, the Republican Party, the strike etc... non-fiction has been rotting my brain. I actually caught myself starting a sentence with "These kids today..."

Well, I am not quite ready to turn into a highball swillin', More menthols smokin', "stay the fuck off my lawn" curmudgeon. Here is some funny stuff.
