So I made a video.

For thee blog faithful, you know I have had my problems with obtaining health insurance.

If McCain's new health plan works out to perfection, it will make it damn near impossible for me to obtain health insurance.

Doesn't matter about the $5k. I will not be able to get it. Even if I won the lottery tomorrow, I would not be able to get health insurance. So this means I will need to earn and extra $10-$20k a year to survive. Just to survive.

McCain's plan will force millions into bankruptcy.

Here's my video.
